

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

Large Fields Will Delight Both the Public and the Bookmakers.

A Five-Furlong Dash Will Open the Sport To-Day.

Some really good racing will be seen on the hilltop track to-day. The card is high class in every respect, and the large fields will delight public and bookmakers alike. The track will be in first-class condition, and the weather could not be better.

The sport will commence with a dash of five furlongs, and prominent among the entries are Philadelphia, late Momento colt; Guard, Aftermath, Captain Hazelhurst, Baldingian, Elegrette and Duke, Jester.

In the second event, at seven furlongs, Belwood, Richel, Allan Banc, Headlight and others are named to go.

The fifth and sixth races are also interesting, and the sport should be very good.
